About Watershed Weekend

The public is invited to Watershed Weekend and encouraged to get to know their watershed and the people and organizations working hard to restore and protect them.

Watershed Weekend is held annually on the last Saturday and Sunday of September.

Venues include hands-on conservation, environmental education, and stewardship activities, and more. Most venues are located in York County, the Lower Susquehanna River and Upper West Shore Chesapeake Bay Watersheds.

Use our convenient Watershed Weekend Guide to locate your watershed and venue nearest you.

Watershed Weekend is outdoors fun for the whole family! We hope you join us.

For more information about Watershed Weekend venues including descriptions, directions, and maps visit our web site: www.watershedsyork.org.

The Watershed Alliance of York (WAY) is a coalition of stakeholders committed to encouraging watershed-based planning, restoration and protection, through locally led initiatives, in York County and beyond.

In the event that a Severe Weather Warning is issued by the National Weather Service for any watershed the day of the events, venues may be cancelled, locally. Check our web site for updates.
